INDIANER INUIT: DAS NORDAMERIKA FILMFESTIVAL [6]

Encounters, exclusivity, competence, educational experience, international flair, vision for the future, investment, potential and perspective

IN TOMORROW WE BELIEVE – this is the motto of the sixth NORTH AMERICAN FILM FESTIVAL, which will take place from 21 to 24 January 2016 in Stuttgart. At the TREFFPUNKT Rotenbühlplatz, Volkshochschule (vhs), the festival will showcase films by Native Americans and Inuits as film directors, actors and playwrights, in which they portray their culture and their way of life. The powerful, humorous and fascinating films put a spotlight on both the past and the present.

IN TOMORROW WE BELIEVE – the aim is to pursue the exemplary ideas developed by indigenous people in their way of life, and their unique understanding of nature, people and the way things interact. Indigenous people are the memory of mankind. Their ideas could help us find solutions to make our shared world a better place to live in.

As always, we are expecting some amazing guests and we will be awarding a prize in every category for the best film.

INDIANER INUIT: DAS NORDAMERIKA FILMFESTIVAL is the only festival of its kind in Europe.
